STATEMENT OF RELEVANCY

Reference AO (10-320779) on Form PTO-1449:

According to this reference, key information is recorded in a disk area different from that of scrambled user data, using a different method. The reference utilizes pit width variations for the recording of the key information. In contrast, the present invention uses different reference channel clock lengths T and different modulation methods in such a manner that information regarding a key is associated with the pit length direction and pit width direction.
